Court of Inquiry Goes on Like the Mill of the Gods.

SCHLEY'S COUNSEL REST THEIR CASE.

Captain Sigsbee and Other Witnesses Recalled to Impeach Testimony Offered in Behalf of the Man Who Sunk the Spanish Fleet.

Washington, Oct. 31.—When the Schley court of inquiry resumed its sitting Thursday, Captain T. S. Borden was called as the first witness of the day, and as the last witness who was to testify in Admiral Schley's behalf. It had been expected that Admiral Parker would be called, but it has been decided that his testimony if given would not be material and it is probable he will not testify. Captain Borden is an officer in the marine corps and served on the Brooklyn during the Cuban campaign. His testimony was therefore largely corroborative of the evidence heretofore given by others on the Brooklyn.

The rest of the day was taken up with the hearing of witnesses called by the navy department for the purpose of impeaching certain parts of the testimony given in support of Admiral Schley. Included in the list for this purpose is Captain Charles D. Sigsbee of the St. Paul; Captain Francis E. Chadwick of Admiral Sampson's flagship, the New York; Sylvester Scovil, who was a newspaper correspondent in Cuban waters during the campaign; Major T. N. Wood, who served on board the Massachusetts as marine officer; Lieutenant Potts and Lieutenant Grant, who also were on the Massachusetts, and Captain Joseph G. Eaton, who was on the Resolute. Captain Sigsbee was called for the purpose rebutting the testimony as to his message to the Somers N. Smith press boat and also his conversation on the Brooklyn to which witnesses have testified that he told Commodore Schley the Spaniards were not in Santiago.

Mr. Scovil also was summoned for the purpose of rebutting testimony as to Captain Sigsbee's message to the press boat Somers N. Smith. Captain Chadwick was called to testify concerning the conference between Admiral Sampson and Commodore Schley May 19. Major Wood, Commander Potts and Lieutenant Grant were to testify relative to the wardroom conversation on the Massachusetts May 31, on which Lieutenant Sears is alleged to have spoken of the difficulty of getting Admiral Schley to embark upon the reconnaissance in the harbor at Santiago which took place that day. Admiral Schley will probably not return to the witness stand for correction of his testimony for two or three days.

At the conclusion of Captain Borden's testimony at 11:15, counsel for Admiral Schley announced that they had closed their case. The statement was made in such quiet tones that it is doubtful whether its purport was understood by half those present.

Captain Parker then asked to have put in evidence a number of documents including the report of the battle of July 3, Admiral Schley made from Montevideo, June 3, 1900. This report never has been printed. Following is an extract from it: "In my judgment from an unobstructed view of the entire field of action during the combat the Viscaya was not more than 1,000 yards distant. My flag lieutenant, standing at my elbow, reminded me that the distance between the leaders of the Spanish squadron and ourselves was approaching our tactical diameter. The stadiometer at this instant indicated 900 yards. The Brooklyn then swung to starboard to meet what proved to be the last of the attempts to ram the Brooklyn, for the Viscaya then turned square to starboard and followed the Maria Teresa until the latter's destruction. These facts admit of no contradiction, for they are based upon the independent judgment and observation of two or more persons and upon the stadiometer in the hands of a person skilled in its use."

Ten minutes were consumed in presenting this report which was admitted. Lieutenant Grant was then called as the first witness for rebuttal. He was interrogated only concerning events of May 31, when Commodore Schley went aboard the Massachusetts for the purpose of making a reconnaissance and bombarding the Colon, especially to the conversation in which Lieutenant Sears, flag lieutenant of the Brooklyn, was represented as urging that no obstacles be put in the way of letting the bombardment go on because, as he was alleged to have said, it had been difficult enough to get the commodore up to the point of undertaking it. "I want you to state what the conversation was in the stateroom of the navigator," said Captain Lemly.

At this point the testimony was brought to a sudden stop by an emphatic remark by Mr. Rayner: "I object." Addressing the court, Mr. Rayner made a vigorous speech charging that the conversation in the wardroom of the Massachusetts was immaterial.

Following Mr. Hanna, Captain Lemly quoted the remark which Lieutenant Sears is alleged to have made as follows: "For God's sake don't discourage him (meaning Commodore Schley), it is all that we have been able to do to work him up to this."

Captain Parker followed with a brief speech in support of Mr. Rayner's contention. "If commanding officers are to be judged by all the foolish and ridiculous things young officers say in the wardroom I don't know what would become of them," he said. The court then retired to consider the point raised, and sustained the objection.

Lieut. Grant was then excused, and after a brief consultation between Captain Lemly and Mr. Hanna, Captain Sigsbee was recalled.

When he had taken his seat, Mr. Hanna stated that the witness had been called for the purpose of securing such facts as he might be possessed of that the court or counsel might want to elicit from him. This statement brought Mr. Rayner to his feet with the question: "You are calling Captain Sigsbee in rebuttal of course?"

Captain Lemly: "I don't call it rebuttal; we call Captain Sigsbee because he is wanted to testify."

Apparently Mr. Rayner was surprised. He said:

"Have we right after we have closed the case to recall witnesses except in rebuttal? That would lead to an interminable case. The rule of law is you can rebut anything new that we have brought out, but you cannot call witnesses to sustain former statements they have made. There is no objection to a witness in rebuttal."

Captain Lemly: "Counsel is wrong when he says I closed the case. I did not close it. I simply said 'We rest here, and I propose to call further witnesses hereafter.' I am only going to call such witnesses as the court thinks necessary in order to have the facts before it."

He contended that this is an inquiry and not a prosecution, and that the usual rules of opening and closing and of rebuttal and surrebuttal followed in ordinary courts of law were not to be followed in this case. The controversy between counsel continued for some time. Mr. Hanna said he had a conversation with Mr. Rayner in which the latter had promised to be liberal in rebutting testimony. Replying Mr. Rayner said his promise applied only to rebutting testimony proper. The discussion continued until court recessed for luncheon. After recess Admiral Dewey read the court's decision, which was as follows: "Admiral Schley requested the department to take such action as may bring under discussion and review his brothers in arms certain criticisms made on him. This request indicated that he desired a court of inquiry to investigate the portions of his naval career to which such criticisms referred. In pursuance of this request the department ordered a court of inquiry to thoroughly inquire into all the circumstances bearing on the subject of investigation, directed the attention of the court to certain important points and ordered the court to report all the pertinent facts which it may deem established. The court is therefore required to examine all witnesses who may have any knowledge of the matters brought to its attention and is not bound by any technical laws regarding laws, evidence or order, and to this end witnesses may be called at any time or at any time may be called to make corrections or additions in the nature of correction in their testimony. The facts in the case may, if possible, be placed clearly before the court, but no witness shall reiterate former statements."

Captain Sigsbee said in testifying he stood by his former testimony. Several other witnesses were called to the same effect.

These included Lieutenant John Roys watch officer on the Eagle, Quartermaster Anderson of the Brooklyn, Alfred B. Claxton machinist on the Texas, and Captain Chadwick, who was on the stand until court adjourned for the day.

Naval Demonstration Intended to Bring the Turk to Terms—Porte Repudiates Responsibility For Abduction of Miss Stone.

Paris, Oct. 31.—Officials of the French foreign office confirm the report that a division of the French Mediterranean fleet, composed of three battleships and two cruisers, under command of Admiral Caillard, has proceeded from Toulon to the Levant to make a naval demonstration against Turkey.

An official of the foreign office communicating the foregoing, said: "The squadron sailed with sealed orders and proceeds first to a Greek port, the island of Syra, I think, where the admiral will receive definite instructions as to carrying out his sealed orders. I am not at liberty to say what the sealed orders are, but the seizure of the customs at Smyrna would probably be a very effective way of convincing the sultan that France's patience is exhausted and that we have decided to enforce an immediate execution of the Turkish government's engagements. We, however, are very hopeful that the sultan will not compel us to go to that extreme. Our squadron will not reach the Greek port before Sunday. The Turkish government has thus still three days grace, and we trust, in the meantime to receive complete satisfaction. We have been very considerate toward Turkey, hoping, up to the last moment, that she would carry out her engagements and it is only now, when we find that there is no serious indication of her doing so, that we have reluctantly resolved to put stronger pressure to bear in the shape of a naval demonstration. It is now two months since the French ambassador, M. Constans, left Constantinople. His departure failed to produce the desired effect. On the contrary even the quays and Tophane questions, which were settled by the sultan's trade, remain unadjusted. The internal situation in the Turkish empire deterred us, for some time from taking drastic measures to enforce our demands. But the dignity of France could not permit the present state of affairs to be prolonged indefinitely. We sincerely hope the sultan will fully appreciate the fact that we cannot any longer be trifled with, and relieve us of taking further steps to safeguard our interests."

The official was asked what would happen in the event of the French squadron being ordered to seize the customs and if the Turkish authorities resisted, and he replied: "That is a very unlikely contingency, but if it occurred, I suppose we shall have to bombard the port. We do not want bloodshed, and I do not believe there will be any occasion for it."

Turk Repudiates Responsibility.

Constantinople, Oct. 31.—The Turkish government is already preparing to resist the anticipated demand of the United States for repayment of the ransom money to secure the release of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary. The porte repudiates all responsibility for the kidnapping of Miss Stone and maintains that the United States has no claim against Turkey and that, therefore, the latter is justified in refusing to recoup the United States for the money expended in her rescue. Turkish insistence of any claims will be based upon these contentions: That Miss Stone, although warned of the dangers of the road, persisted in traveling; that she did not notify the authorities of her intentions, in order to obtain an escort which precaution even the foreign consuls always take when traveling in such outlying, insecure districts of the empire; that the brigands who kidnapped Miss Stone and her companion were Bulgarians, that the coup was planned in Bulgaria and that sanctuary was found in Bulgarian territory.

Tumor in King's Throat.

London, Oct. 31.—With a full sense of its responsibility in the matter, the Medical Press and Circular prints some alarming details on the subject of the king's health. It is stated that papillomatous growths have on three occasions been removed from the king's left vocal chord and that an immediate operation of another nature has been rendered necessary. "Under the circumstances," says the publication, "it seems right and proper that the natural anxiety should be at once met with a clear announcement as to the truth or otherwise of these distressing reports." In contradiction to this The Lancet says it has official authority to announce that the recent rumors regarding the health of King Edward are entirely without truth or foundation.

THREE FIRES IN CHICAGO.

Much Property Destroyed and Many Families Rendered Homeless.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Chicago had three destructive fires within 24 hours. The 5-story brick building at 141-143 Ontario street was destroyed. The building was occupied by Derby steam laundry, the Chicago Central cleaning works and Zimmerman & Co., manufacturers of shirtwaists. Loss estimated at $60,000, half of which is on contents. This fire is supposed to have started from an explosion.

The 3-story brick cooperative shop of John Johnson at 210-212 North Carpenter street, burned, causing a loss of $60,000. Several persons living in cottages adjoining the shops were overcome by smoke and were carried out, by the police. Five firemen were caught in the basement and more or less seriously burned. They were rescued by other firemen.

Peters & Co., picture frame factory at Union street and Austin avenue, and the packing plant of Feinburg & Stopp, with two blocks of dwellings on Milwaukee avenue are in ruins, about 35 families being burned out. Total loss $250,000, of which $175,000 is on the picture frame factory.

POSTAL ESTIMATES.

Pneumatic Tube Service Urged and Railed to Be Extended.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The estimates for the entire postal service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, aggregates $135,885,506. This includes $1,037,370 for departmental salaries and $216,650 for contingent expenses. A round $500,000 is asked for transportation of mail by pneumatic tube or other similar devices by purchase or otherwise. The total for rural free delivery is $6,250,000, an increase of $2,750,000 over the current year. The compensation for postmasters amounts to $20,000,000; letter carriers and substitute and temporary carriers $17,430,450; star route service, $6,715,000; railroad transportation, railway postoffice car service and railway mail service $52,463,456. The grand total for inland mail transportation is $63,019,956; and for foreign mail $2,542,000.

Bank Wrecked and Robbed.

Matlock, Ia., Oct. 31.—The bank of Matlock was burglarized by six men who secured about $2,000. Four men stood guard while the other two went inside. The safe and vault were shattered with dynamite and the building badly wrecked. Pieces of the safe a foot square were blown through the sides of the building and into the street 30 yards. An old man sleeping in an adjoining building was compelled by the robbers to return to the house and keep still. No effort was made to follow the robbers because all were heavily armed. The total loss in money and damage to the safe and building is over $4,000.

Mr. Brady's body will be taken to St. Louis to be cremated.

MOB HANGED A NEGRO

Was Accused of Compelling a Boy to Commit a Crime.

SWUNG FROM COURT HOUSE STEPS.

Keys to the Jail Surrendered on Demand—Prisoner Broke Away From the Lynchers and Was Shot Full of Bullets, Then Strung Up.

Hodgenville, Ky., Oct. 31.—A mob of 50 or 75 determined citizens came down upon this little town and took from the jail Silas Esters, a negro charged with forcing Granville Ward, 15, near Upton to commit a crime, and strung the negro to the court house steps. So quietly and systematically did the mob go about its work that the citizens of the town were in ignorance of the existence of a mob until the negro was in its clutches.

The lynching party went to the jail and upon demand the keys were surrendered. The cell in which the negro was confined was entered and the noose was adjusted about his neck. Esters was dragged down the jail stairs and out into the street. He managed to slip the noose from his neck and made a break for liberty. The mob made after the negro, yelling and firing at him with guns and pistols. The negro fell when about 100 yards from the jail, riddled with bullets. The noose was again placed about the negro's neck and he was dragged to the court house and swung to the topmost steps.

The mob was formed in the neighborhood of the crime. When the lynching was accomplished the mob dispersed.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—A jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of former Lieutenant Joyce of the detective bureau. In voting for county offices, place your X in the small circle under the rooster. That will vote the Democratic ticket from top to bottom.

THE BULLETIN again reminds the Democrats of Mason that it is important to get the full vote out next Tuesday. You owe it to your State, your county, your party and your nominees to turn out and vote.

THE election of a United States Senator makes the choice of a Representative very important for the approaching session. Democrats should bear this in mind and see that the full vote is polled next Tuesday for Hon. John W. Alexander; and not only for him but for all the rest of the ticket.

THE STORY was sent out from Georgetown that B. S. Calvert, foreman of the jury that convicted Caleb Powers the second time, was a former schoolmate of Powers, as if that made his action more impressive. Mr. Powers repudiated the story and says:

"Mr. S. B. Calvert, the juror who read the verdict in my case, was not a classmate of mine, was never in college with me so far as I know, and I never knew the man until he was summoned as a juror in the case against me."

Thus another Goebeliticid is smashed to smithereens.—Public Ledger.

But the records of the State College at Lexington show that Caleb has lied, or that his memory is not good. He and Calvert were pupils of the above school, as Calvert claims.

D. HUNT & SON.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANISM.

Sea bing Criticism of the Taylor-Powers-Finley Gang's Methods—Shoot Opponents From Ambush.

[Indianapolis Sentinel.]

The introduction of testimony in the Powers case of men who swear that Finley and Taylor told them in advance that Goebel would be killed calls attention to the convincing nature of their statements. Look at Wharton Golden's statement of Governor Taylor's remark to him:

Wharton, it is an awful thing to think of taking human life, but it looks like Goebel and those fellows must die or we will be robbed.

As a matter of course in politics the side that gains the advantage in a close contest is believed by the other side to do it dishonestly, and in this case that sentiment was a matter of notoriety.

Not only in Kentucky, but outside of it, the Republican press proclaimed that Goebel was preparing to rob the Republicans of the offices. And it was notable that this charge involved the integrity of the courts and the Legislature, for Goebel could do nothing except through the regular tribunals in which power had been lodged by the laws of the State, the whole responsibility was centered on Goebel. He was the one object of Republican execration. The suggestion was so plain—get rid of Goebel and our side will win.

This is the weakness of the anarchist theory, from a practical standpoint. Assassination helps nothing. Czolgoz may have thought he accomplished something by killing President McKinley, but how absurd the thought. If there is anything wrong in our system of government, McKinley was not the cause of it, and his assassination did not remove it. The government goes on as before. And so what these Kentucky desperadoes expected to accomplish by killing Goebel was not accomplished. On the contrary, their situation was made worse. But that result is never seen by the political assassin. They are threatening in Kentucky now to kill Judge Cantrell to save Powers from punishment, and a guard has been put about the court. Of course if Cantrell were assassinated it would not prevent bringing Powers to justice, but would make that result more certain, yet there would make that result more certain, yet there are probably dozens of Republicans in Kentucky who would attempt that course if opportunity offered.

This is the Kentucky Republican system. All the Kentucky feed counties are Republican counties. Assassination is the custom there. If a man offends you, or beats you in a lawsuit, or cuts you out with your girl, or defeats you in an election, shoot him. If you cannot find him, shoot some of his relatives. And, above all, shoot him from ambush. That is the system in force in all the strong Republican counties of Kentucky for the settlement of all sorts of controversies, and the "bad men" from these counties were openly brought to the Kentucky capital by Taylor and Finley to "see that justice was done." Now their companions in crime are publishing to the world what was whispered in their ears. You may conceal some crimes, but you cannot conceal one in which you take a partner or two into your confidence. The murder will out somewhere.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's.

ASSEMBLY CLUB DANCE.

Neptune Hall the Scene of a Most Enjoyable Social Event Wednesday Evening.

The young ladies of the Maysville Assembly entertained with a ball Wednesday evening from 9 till 2. It was one of the pleasantest dances ever given in Maysville. There were many visitors present from a distance. Music was furnished by the Maysville Orchestra, and it has never been heard to a better advantage than in the many new selections rendered.

Among the visitors were Miss Bradford and Miss Power, of Augusta; Miss Stevenson, of Hillsboro, O.; Mr. Maurice Hook and Mr. Reynolds Hook, of Augusta; Mr. Brayfield, of Carlisle; Mr. Fleming, of Flemingsburg, and Mr. Head, of Ripley.

WEDONIAN ECHOES.

Interesting Story by Dr. Browning Enlivened the Recent Medical Meeting.

A Famous Missionary Surgeon Passes Away.

The medical meeting at Wedonia was greatly enlivened by a capital story—a transcript of an actual personal experience—from our versatile friend, Dr. A. G. Browning, entitled "Eating Out a Doctor"—no very difficult feat one would think, though it proved to be so in this instance. The story was written in the Doctor's best style, and we make the present notice, chiefly, to suggest that this remarkably clever production merits an immediate reproduction in print.

At the same meeting the announcement was made of the death of the famous missionary-surgeon Dr. John S. Kerr, which took place at Canton, China, last August, the news coming but very recently, however, to one of his relatives in this city. Dr. Kerr, as a young man, was a familiar figure in the society of this place, having prosecuted his medical studies with the well-known firm of Sharpe & Duke. He achieved a distinguished reputation as a surgeon, and notably as a lithotomist. In establishing a great asylum for the treatment of the insane in China, he realized one of the dreams of his life. He was really a great man.

A DRY MONTH.

Less Than an Inch of Rain Fell at This Point in October—Plenty Sunshine.

October was one of the driest months on record at this point. The local weather observer reports only ninety-eight hundredths of an inch of rain. On only four days was there any rainfall, the heaviest being during the twenty-four hours ending at 7 a. m., October 13th. October a year ago was very similar in this respect to the month just closed, the rainfall in October, 1900, amounting to 1.08 inches, this precipitation falling on four days.

During last month the highest temperature was 84°, on the 23rd, and the lowest was 28° on the 18th, the mean for the month being 56.6°.

There were twenty clear days, seven partly cloudy and four cloudy days during the month.

The funeral of the late Jailer Isaac L. McIlvain Thursday afternoon was attended by a very large crowd, many being present from Lewisburg, his old home, and also from other sections of the county, to pay a last tribute to a popular official and highly-esteemed citizen. The service was conducted by Rev. Cleon Keyes, assisted by Rev. Dr. Boyet. Hon. John W. Alexander, Judge Newell, County Attorney O'Donnell, County Clerk Wood, Deputy Sheriff Roberson and Mr. C. D. Wells were the pallbearers. After the service the remains were laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery.

OIL IN ROBERTSON.

Prospectors Have Secured Leases on Several Thousand Acres in That and Bracken.

CYNTHIANA, KY., October 30.—For several weeks prospectors have been quietly at work leasing every available piece of property in the oil belt in Robertson and parts of Bracken counties. H. D. Frisbie, of this city, and J. T. Sharrard, of Paris, who are representing a syndicate, have plastered these sections with leases, and have secured fine specimens of crude oil which has only a slight difference in appearance from refined oil, and burns brightly in a lamp. These men have leased about 15,000 acres of land, and other agents are working in the southern part of Pendleton County.

For years it has been claimed that immense quantities of oil are embedded under the soil in Bracken and Robertson counties, and while the prospectors will not give out any information, those interested claim that they have every assurance that Robertson County will become one of the leading oil fields in the State, and that drilling will begin in earnest in a short time. Part of this territory is in the same belt with and only twelve miles distant from the Fleming County wells, which are now running, while the Bath County wells are only a short distance away.

Hallowe'en was celebrated with a vengeance last evening by mischievous young people. Porches were littered with green tomatoes, shelled corn, gravel, &c., &c., and front gates and steps at many homes were missing this morning.

MAYSICK, Oct. 30th.—Miss Emma Vansant returned to her home at Elizaville Tuesday after spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Will Pyles.

The Catholic Church was crowded to its fullest extent Monday morn when, after high mass, the sacrament of confirmation was administered by Bishop Maes, of Covington, to a class of eighty-one children. Promptly at the appointed hour, the children marched in the church, preceded by their teachers, and took their places in perfect order. The girls clad in spotless white, and the boys in dark suits, presented a sight which suggested the thought of "on this earth but not of it." Bishop Maes spoke to the children in a clear, concise way, of the beauty of their religion and their duty for the future. The altars were beautifully decorated with handsome plants and cut flowers, and the improved appearance of the church elicited much praise from the Bishop. Father Flynn, of Flemingsburg, and Father DeByrne, of Maysville, assisted Father Hickey in the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Ean Myall, of Maysville, spent a few days with Mrs. Will Myall, the first of the week.

Harry Mathias, of Carlisle, spent Monday here. Miss Millie Robinson is the guest of Mrs. Will Robinson.

Candidates are very busy this week preparing for next Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Porter, with Carlisle friends, spent Monday here.

Mitchell Jackson, of Millersburg, is the guest of friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collopy entertained Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes, of Covington, Monday at their handsome home on Main street.

Miss Nellie Bowden and sisters, of Flemingsburg, were visitors here the first of the week.

Bishop Maes lectured to a large audience Monday night on "The True Church of Christ." Every available space was occupied by attentive listeners of all denominations and perfect order prevailed during the entire lecture of two hours. All joined in pronouncing it one of the finest lectures ever delivered here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lydick, of Cynthiana, are guests of Hon. A. P. Gooding and Mrs. S. Myall.

Can't Get Better Officers Than These.

[Dover News.]

There was never a better set of county officers in Mason county, or any other county in the State, than those who ask re-election this time. "Don't give up the old friends for the new."

Mr. W. W. McIlvain is perfectly familiar with the duties of the office and will make an ideal officer. He is well known and extremely popular and his election is a foregone conclusion.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty five, the time when womanhood begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's suffering is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheeks, the brightness from the eyes, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a crease and wrinkle. What a boon then to woman, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, dries up debilitating drains, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine can do for woman what is done by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The Mayslick Cemetery Company has filed articles of incorporation. Messrs. Jonas Myall, S. M. Roff, Alex. Duke, S. H. Mitchell, J. D. Peed, W. Matthews and James R. Roberson are the incorporators. The capital stock is $3,500.

Stepped Into Live Coals.

"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for thirty years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." Infallible for burns, scalds, cuts, sores, bruises and piles. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son. 25c.

The Haymakers' hop at Neptune Hall last night was a very enjoyable affair. A large crowd was present.

W. E. Dimmitt and Minnie Berry, colored, were married Thursday.

To the Voters of Mason County.

I wish to say that I, too, heartily endorse the action of our Chairman in his appointment of W. W. McIlvain to succeed his father as Jailer of Mason County, as he is certainly the logical one. I do this for the simple reason that I have a host of friends throughout the county that claim that I should succeed Uncle Ike, but Providence has intervened and taken our venerable banner-bearer away before the time allotted by us, which we know we all deeply mourn.

I therefore urge that all my friends get to the polls on next Tuesday morning and use their utmost endeavors to secure Win's election, with the rest of the ticket. T. F. GOODWIN.

To Whom It May Concern.

Because of reports freely circulated, I take this opportunity of saying to the voters of Maysville that I am running for the Board of Education, not in the interest of any individual or party; but solely in the interest of the cause of education in our city. F. W. HARROP.
